

Agenda: Workshop on TB/HIV Co-Infection

(Toronto, Canada, 12 August 2006)

Satellite workshop preceding the XVI International AIDS Conference

9:00 AM – 1:15 PM, Room 310, Metro Hall (55 John Street, corner SE with King Street, Toronto)

Objectives /Expected Results

- Know about the interaction between TB and HIV/AIDS and the impact of co-infection on the quality of life of people living with HIV
- Identify mechanisms for fostering community involvement and participation to protect and improve the health of people affected by these two diseases
- Get acquainted with an educational model directed at community members for developing and strengthening their communication and advocacy skills with regard to TB/HIV co-infection

8:45 AM	Registration
9:00 AM	Welcome and discussion of the meeting objectives	Rafael Mazín
9:10 AM	Introduction of participants	Moderator: Francisco Rosas
9:30 AM	Why worry about TB & HIV co-infection? Visions, challenges & opportunities	Rafael Mazín
9:50 AM	Background for the Workshop of TB/HIV Co-Infection <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Methodology</li><li>• Profile of the facilitator</li></ul>	Francisco Rosas Rafael Mazín
10:00 am      Break
10:15 AM	Involvement and participation of affected communities: Effective strategies for community participation in health	Francisco Rojas
11:00 AM	Preliminary results and lessons learned: Success stories in capacity development for community members	Francisco Rosas
12:00 NOON	Discussion and exchange of ideas and experiences	Participants
12:45 PM	Identification of potential collaboration and closing	Rafael Mazín

Following this activity, participants are invited to move to the Market Place to attend the Conference on the same subject organized by WHO, UNAIDS, the International AIDS Society, Treatment Action Group, and the Forum for Collaborative HIV Research, on behalf of the Working Group on TB/HIV of the Stop TB Alliance.

XVI International AIDS Conference
Holiday Inn King Hotel from 1:30 to 4:00 PM