

Dr. Devora Kestel, PAHO/WHO's Regional Advisor on Mental Health, visited The Bahamas on March 12 and 13, 2013. The overall objective of her visit was to provide technical advice and training to the institutions and personnel involved in the activities related to disaster preparedness and response, with particular emphasis on issues surrounding mental health response during emergencies.

Captain Stephen Russell, NEMA's Director, addressing workshop attendees

During Dr. Devora's visit, she had the opportunity to meet with Capt. Stephen Russell, Director of the National Emergency Management Agency [NEMA] of The Bahamas, as well as members of the health cluster: Ministry of Health, Department of Public Health, Public Hospitals Authority, Sandilands Rehabilitation Center, Ministry of Education, Ministry of Labor and Social Development, Royal Bahamas Police and Defense Forces, Ministry of National Security, Red Cross Bahamas Society and The Salvation Army. During the meeting, the various sub-sectorial plans to respond to disasters were presented and the need to incorporate various items related to mental health was highlighted.

© 2013 by the author. All rights reserved. This work is licensed under a Creative Commons Attribution-NonCommercial-ShareAlike 4.0 International License.