

Constitution of the Pan American Health Organization

Constitution of the Pan American Health Organization \(28.35 kB \)

Adopted by the Directing Council at its I Meeting, held in Buenos Aires, Argentina, from 24 September to 1 October 1952.

Preamble

Progress in the sciences of public health and medicine together with new and wider concepts of the responsibilities of the State and the community.

Acting in accordance with the Final Act of the XII Pan American Sanitary Conference, the Directing Council of the Organization of American States.

CHAPTER I

THE ORGANIZATION

Article 1. Purposes:

The fundamental purposes of the Pan American Health Organization (hereinafter called the Organization) are:

Article 2. Membership:

A. All American States are entitled to membership in the Organization. (American States which are Members of the Organization of American States.)

B. Territories or groups of territories within the Western Hemisphere which are not responsible for the co

It is understood that Member Governments having under their jurisdiction subordinate territories and peo

Article 3. Organs:

The Organization shall comprise:

1. The Pan American Sanitary Conference (hereinafter called the Conference);
2. The Directing Council (hereinafter called the Council);
3. The Executive Committee of the Directing Council (hereinafter called the Executive Committee); a
4. The Pan American Sanitary Bureau (hereinafter called the Bureau).

CHAPTER II

THE CONFERENCE

Article 4. Functions:

A. The Conference shall be the supreme governing authority of the Organization.

B. The Conference shall determine the general policies of the Organization....
