PAHO AWARD FOR ADMINISTRATION (2012)

1. The Award Committee of the PAHO Award for Administration (2012), made up of the delegates of Saint Vincent and the Grenadines, the United States of America, and the Bolivarian Republic of Venezuela, met on 19 June, during the 150th Session of the Executive Committee. After examining the documentation on the candidates nominated by the Member States, the Committee decided to recommend that PAHO Award for Administration (2012) be conferred on Dr. Aron Nowinski of Uruguay for his contributions to the promotion of public health and health services administration; his extensive public health teaching career; his work to systematize and disseminate medical information; his activity that catalyzed the development of the major guidelines for the creation of the National Integrated Health System; his leadership in the development of the strategy for the Latin American Network for Health Sciences Information, and the Program for Selective Dissemination of Information, both aimed at supporting priority health programs in the countries of the Region; and for his contribution to the production of the Latin American Index Medicus.
2. The Executive Committee considered the report (see Annex A) of the Award Committee and adopted Resolution CE150.R14 (see Annex B).
3. The Award will be conferred on Dr. Aron Nowinski in a ceremony to be held during the 28th Pan American Sanitary Conference.
