

Problem Tree for Leprosy

LATE DETECTION

Decentralization

Decentralization

Slow application of Elimination Plan

Few resources allocated

Lack of political commitment

Campaign focus

Outdated technical guidelines

Obsolete legislation

Little expertise in leprosy

Lack of interest because elimination goals have already been achieved

Lack of community education

Deficiencies in epidemiological surveillance system

Low quality of care

Hardly any orientation offered to patients and their family

Systematic use of staff and specialized institutions

Lack of trained human resources to carry out diagnostic activities

Lack of adherence among patients

Lack of knowledge of signs and symptoms on the part of the community

Low coverage of control activities in neglected and marginalized communities and areas

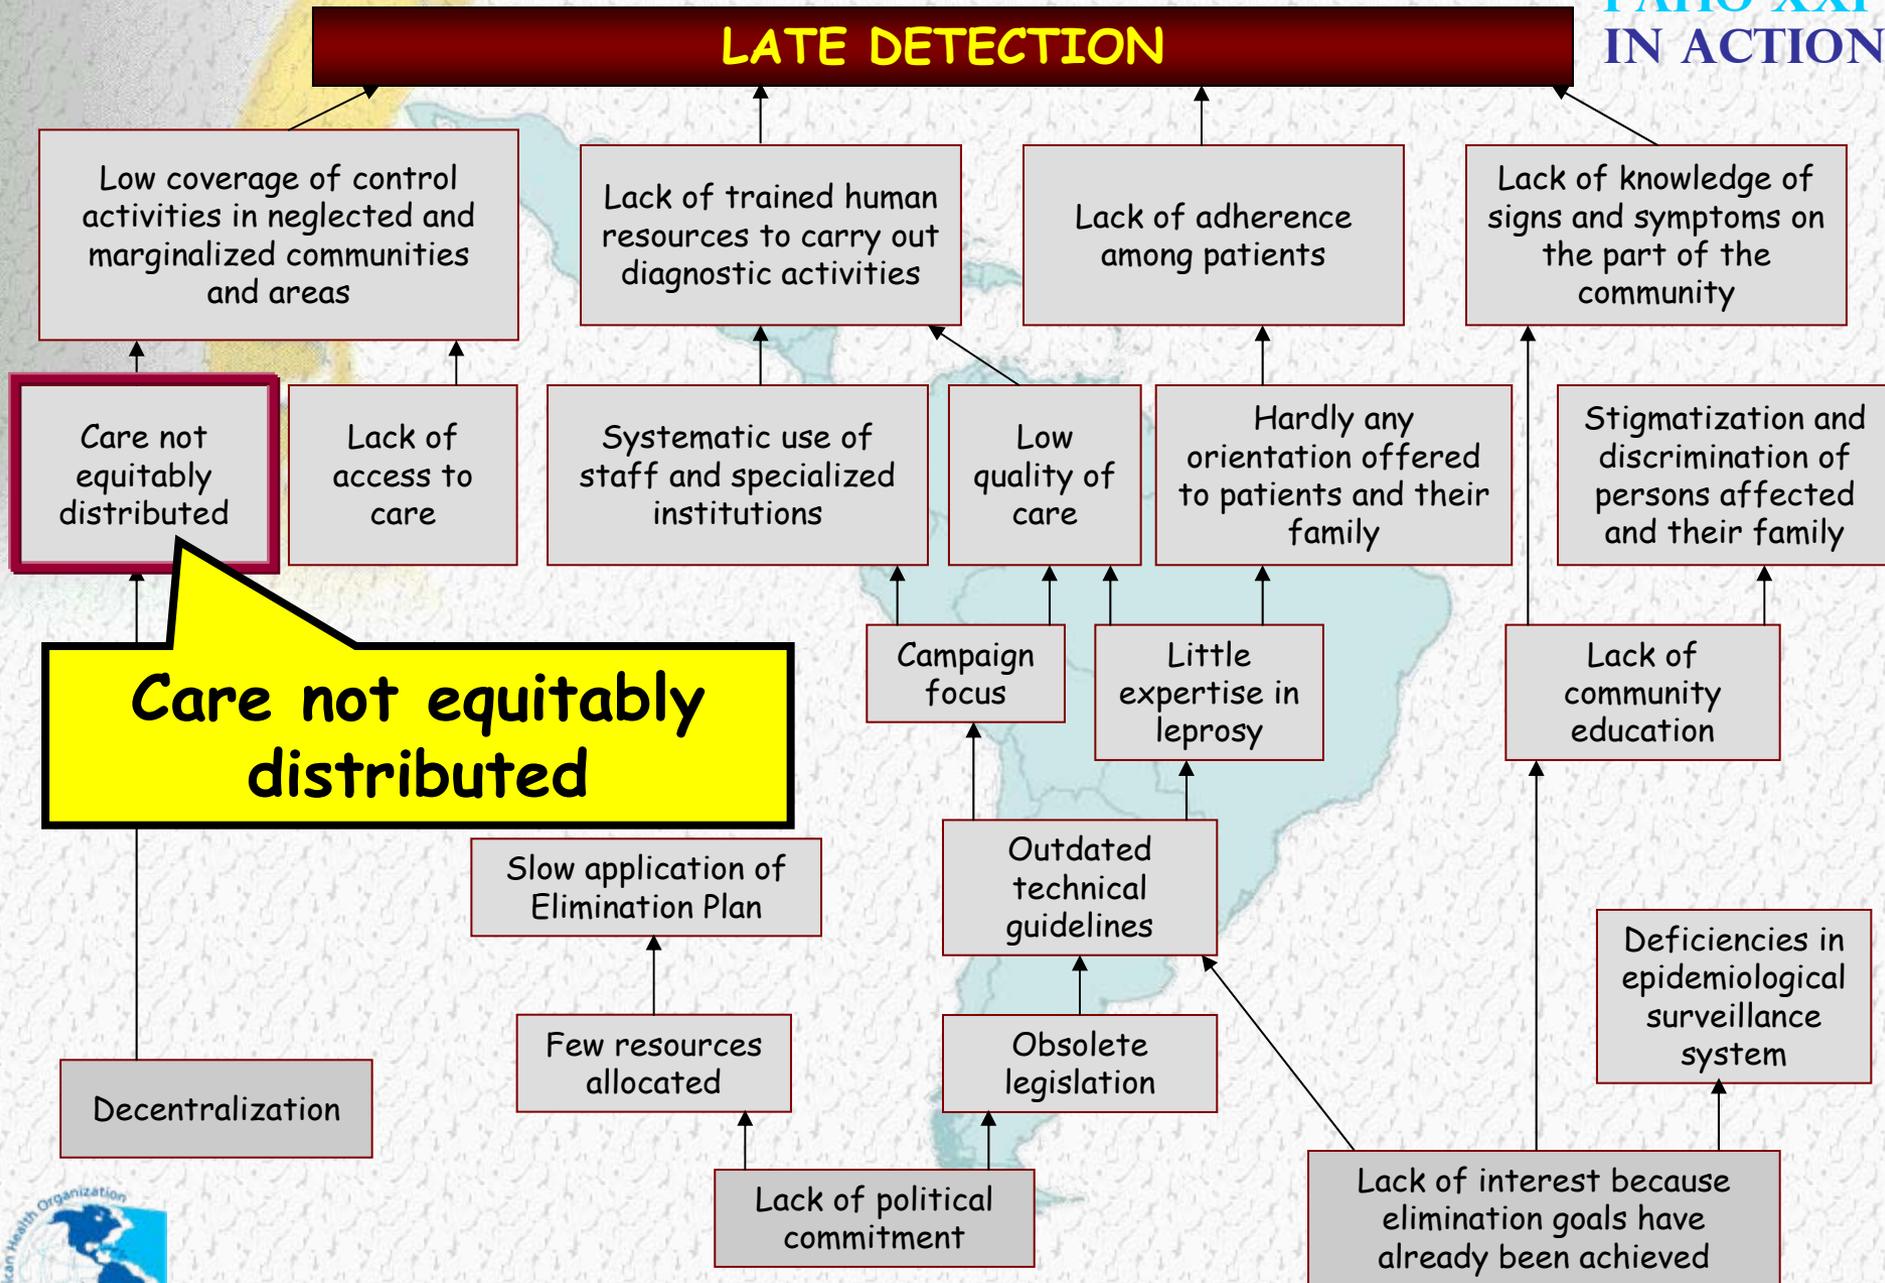

Care not equitably distributed

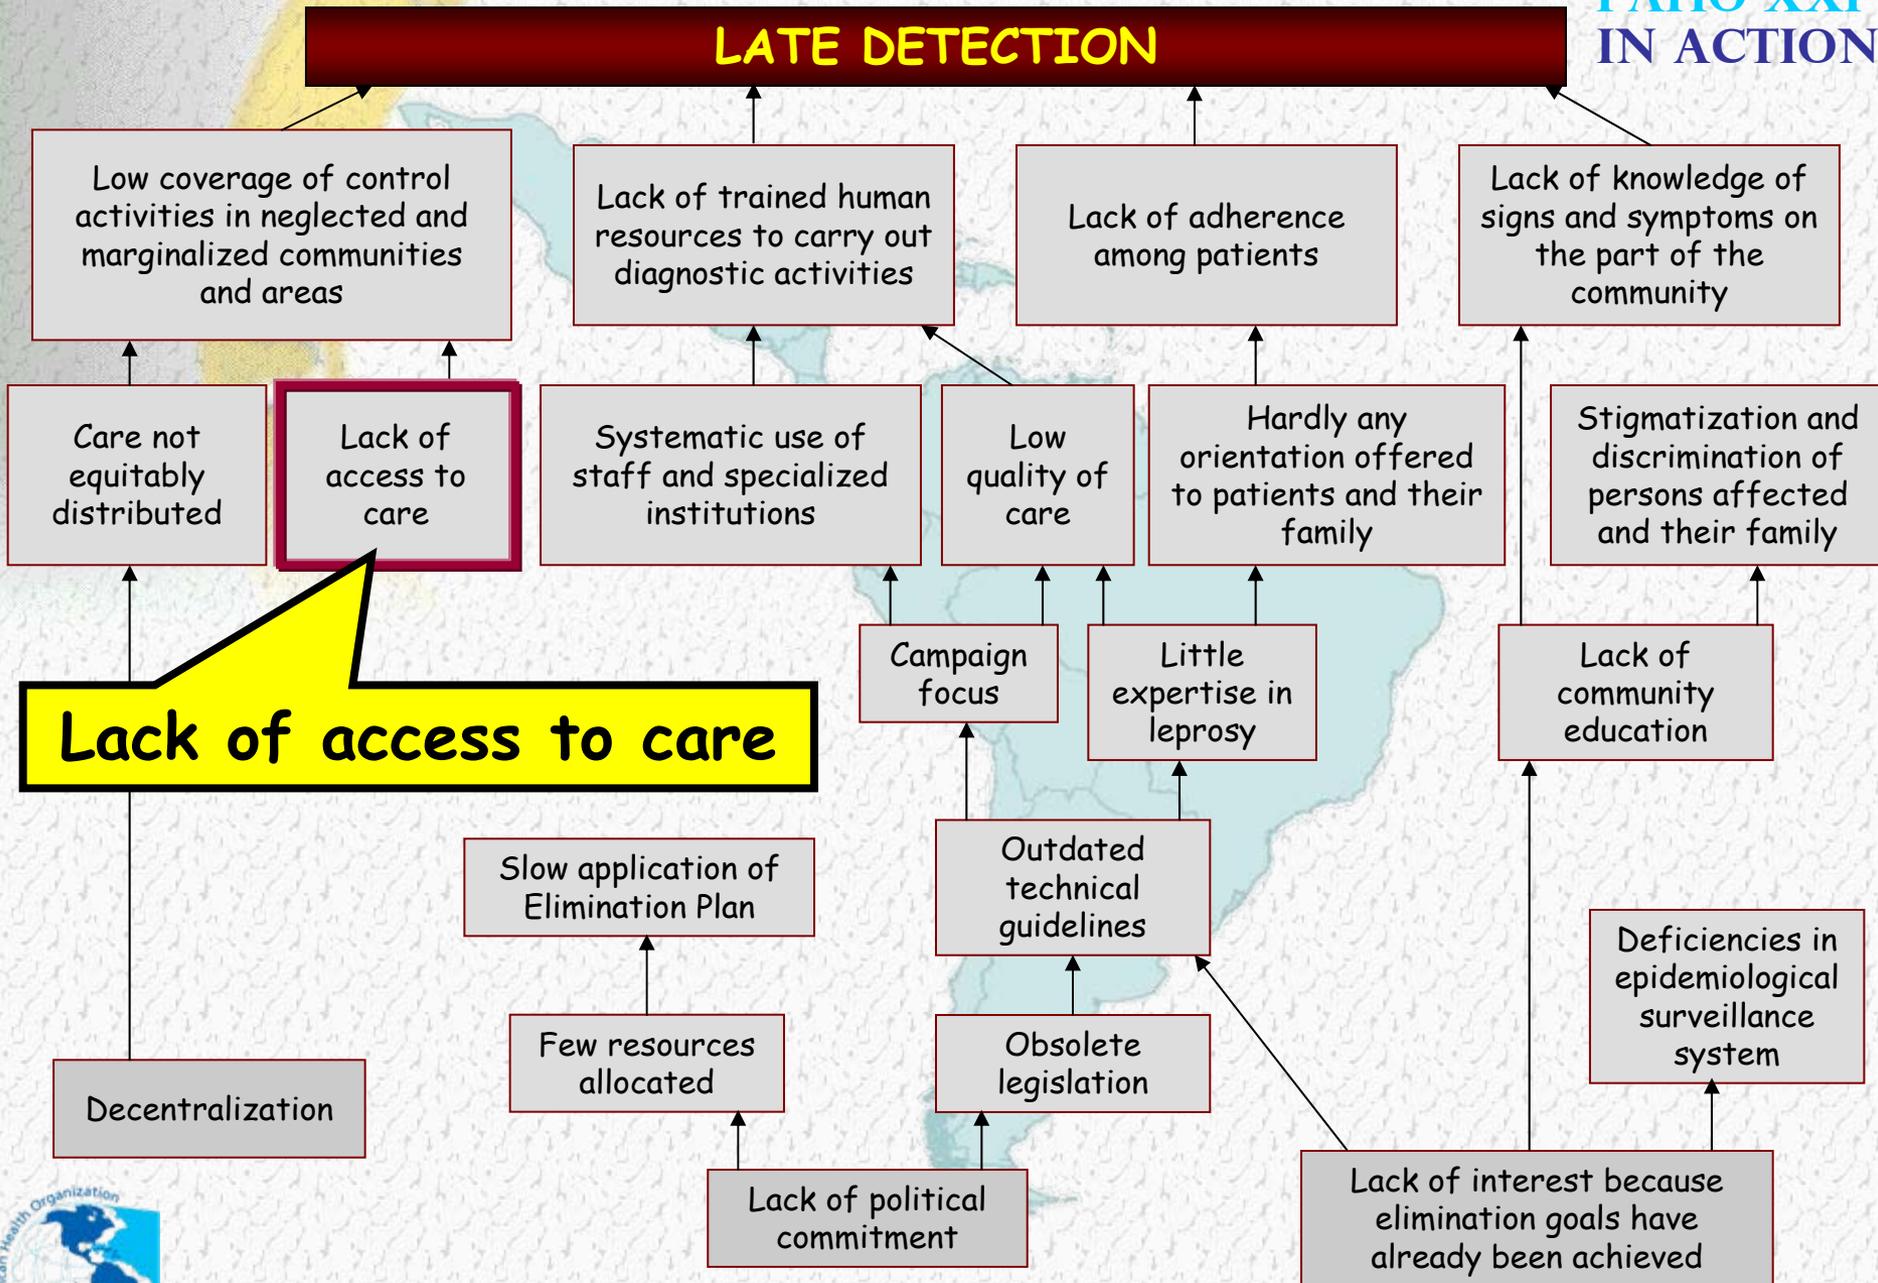

Lack of access to care

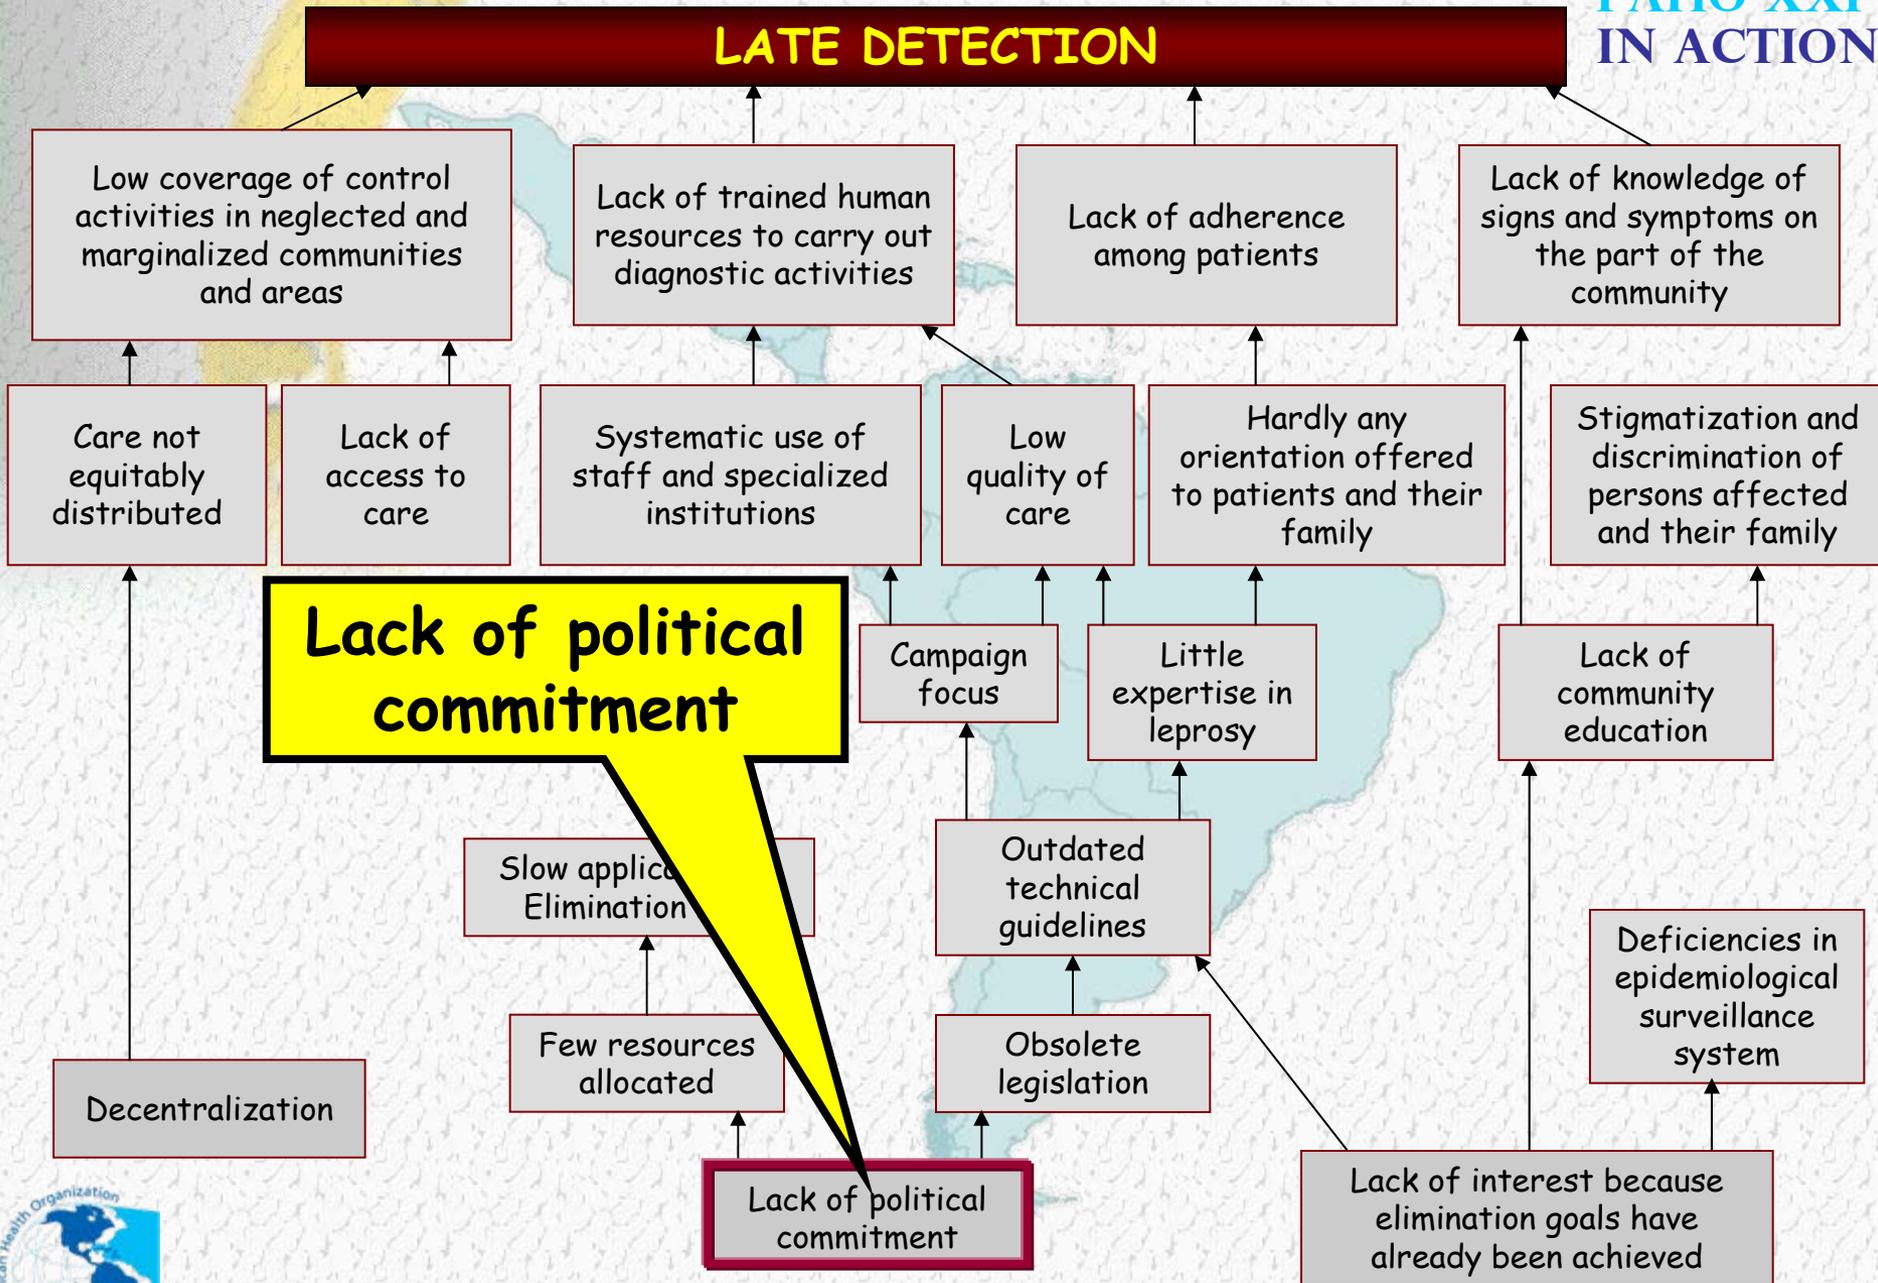

Stigmatization and discrimination of persons affected and their family

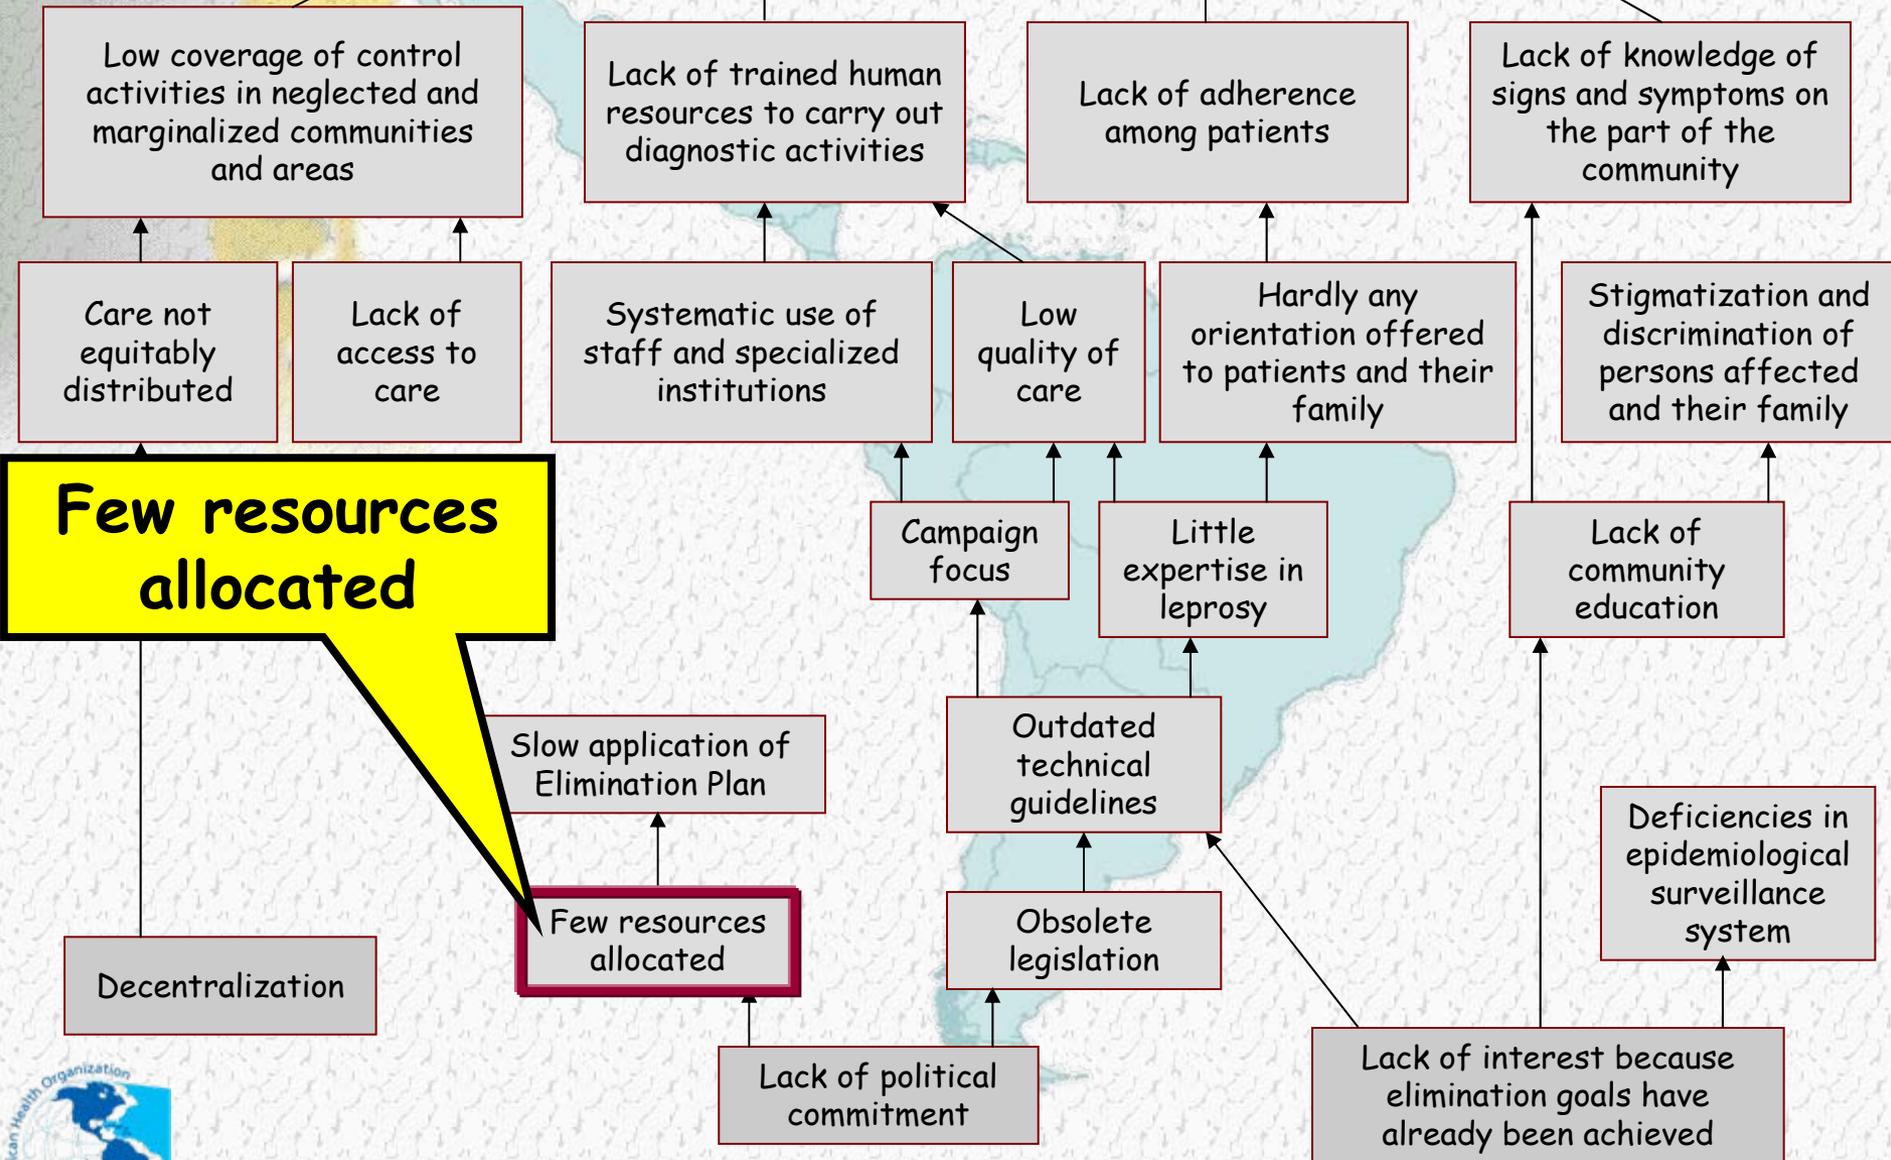

LATE DETECTION

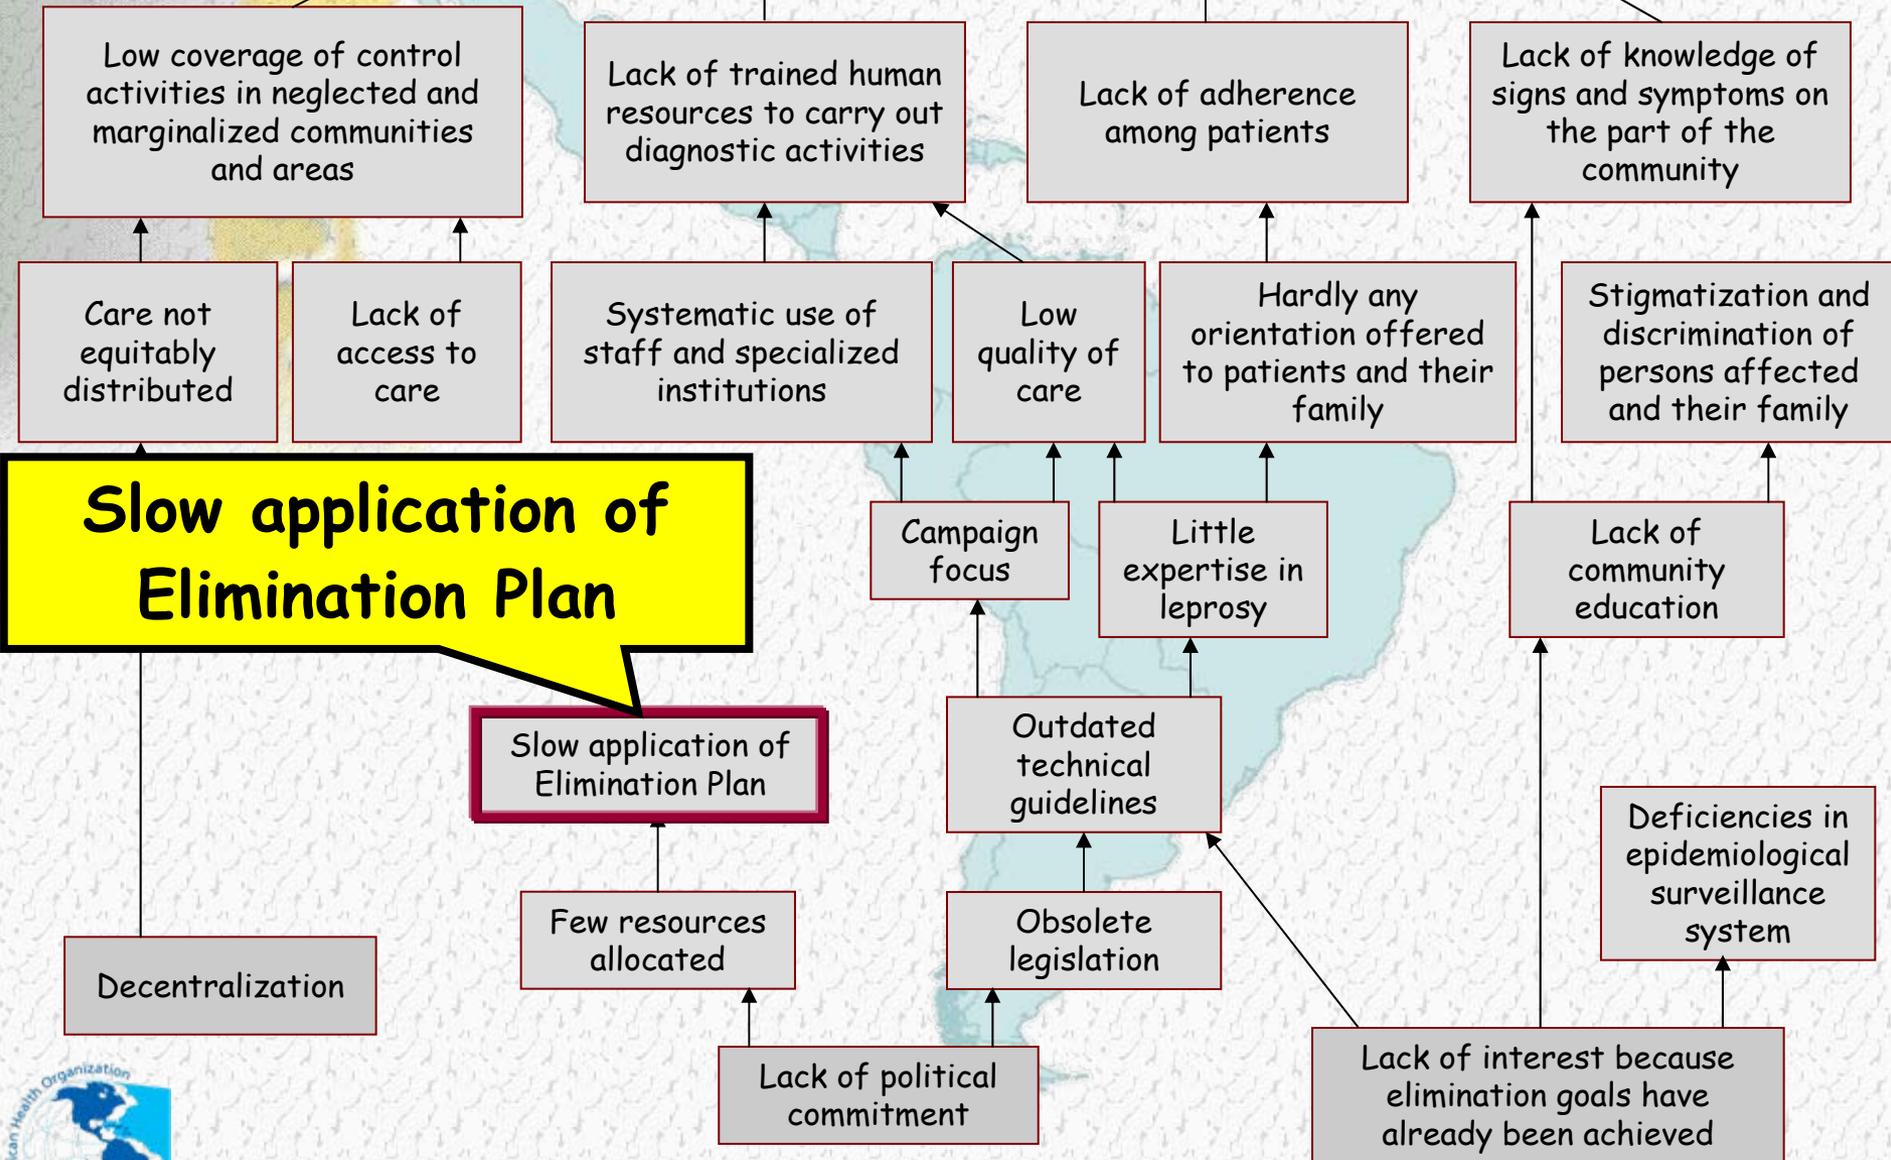

LATE DETECTION

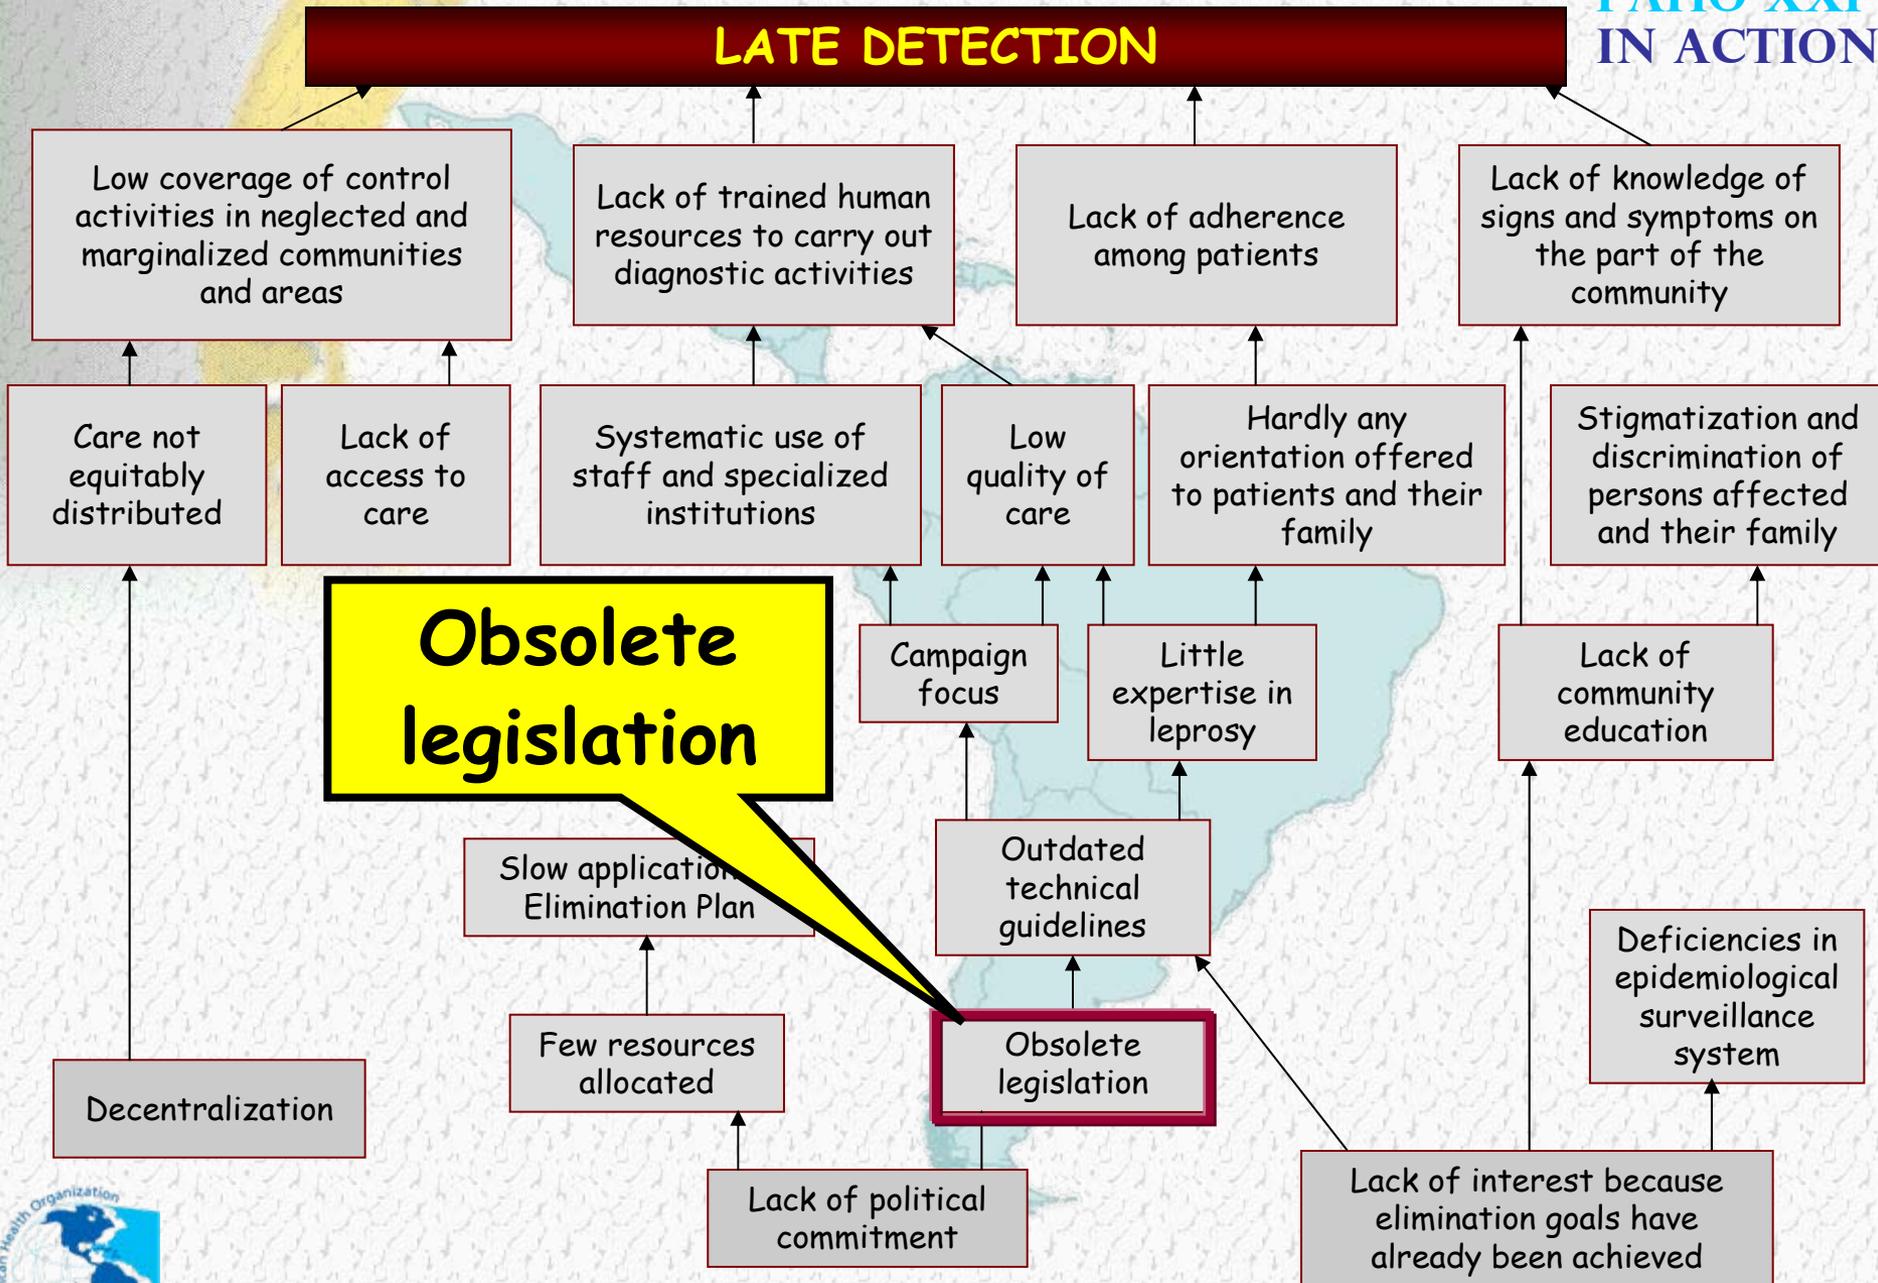

LATE DETECTION

Slow application of Elimination Plan

Slow application of Elimination Plan

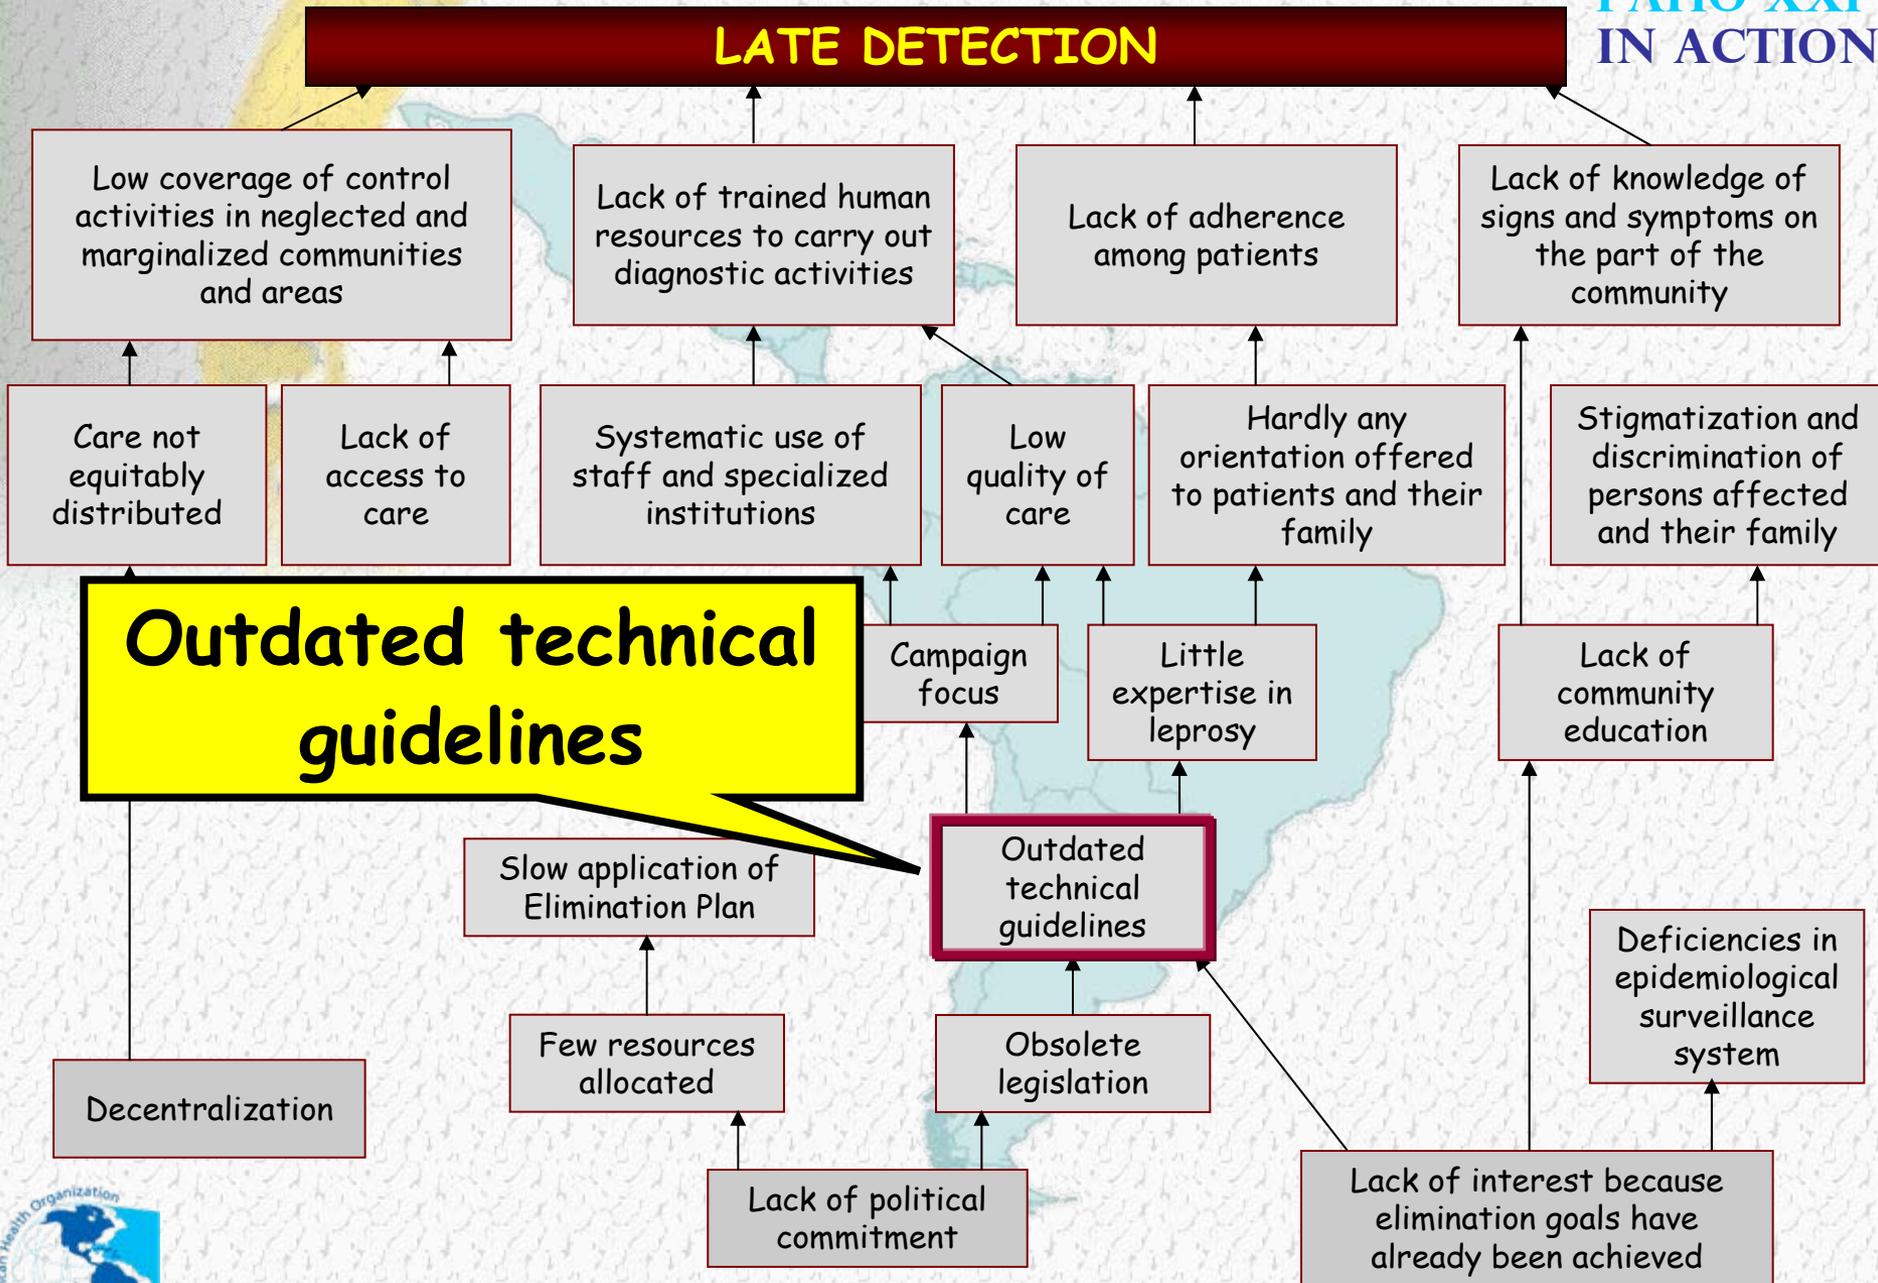

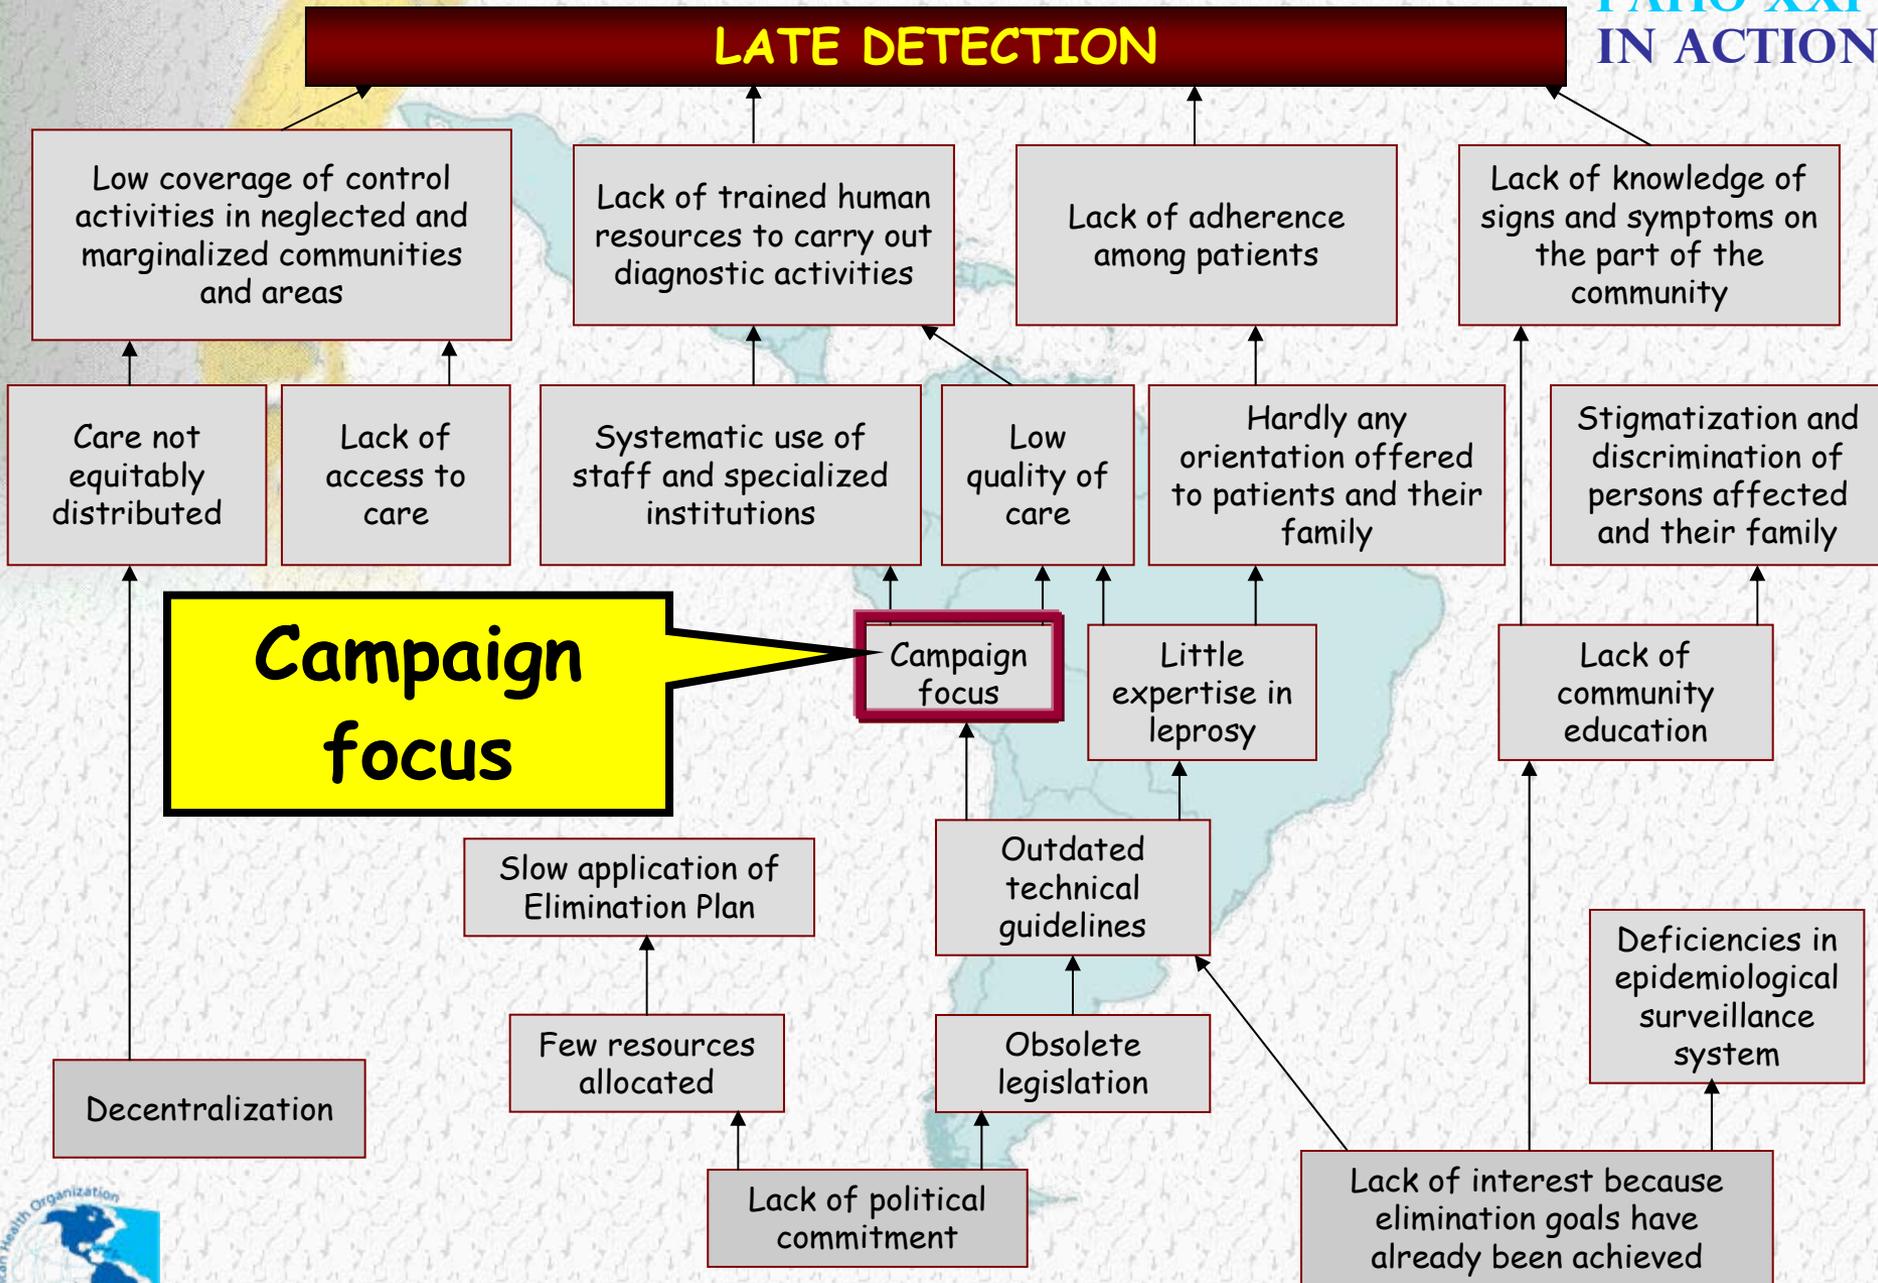

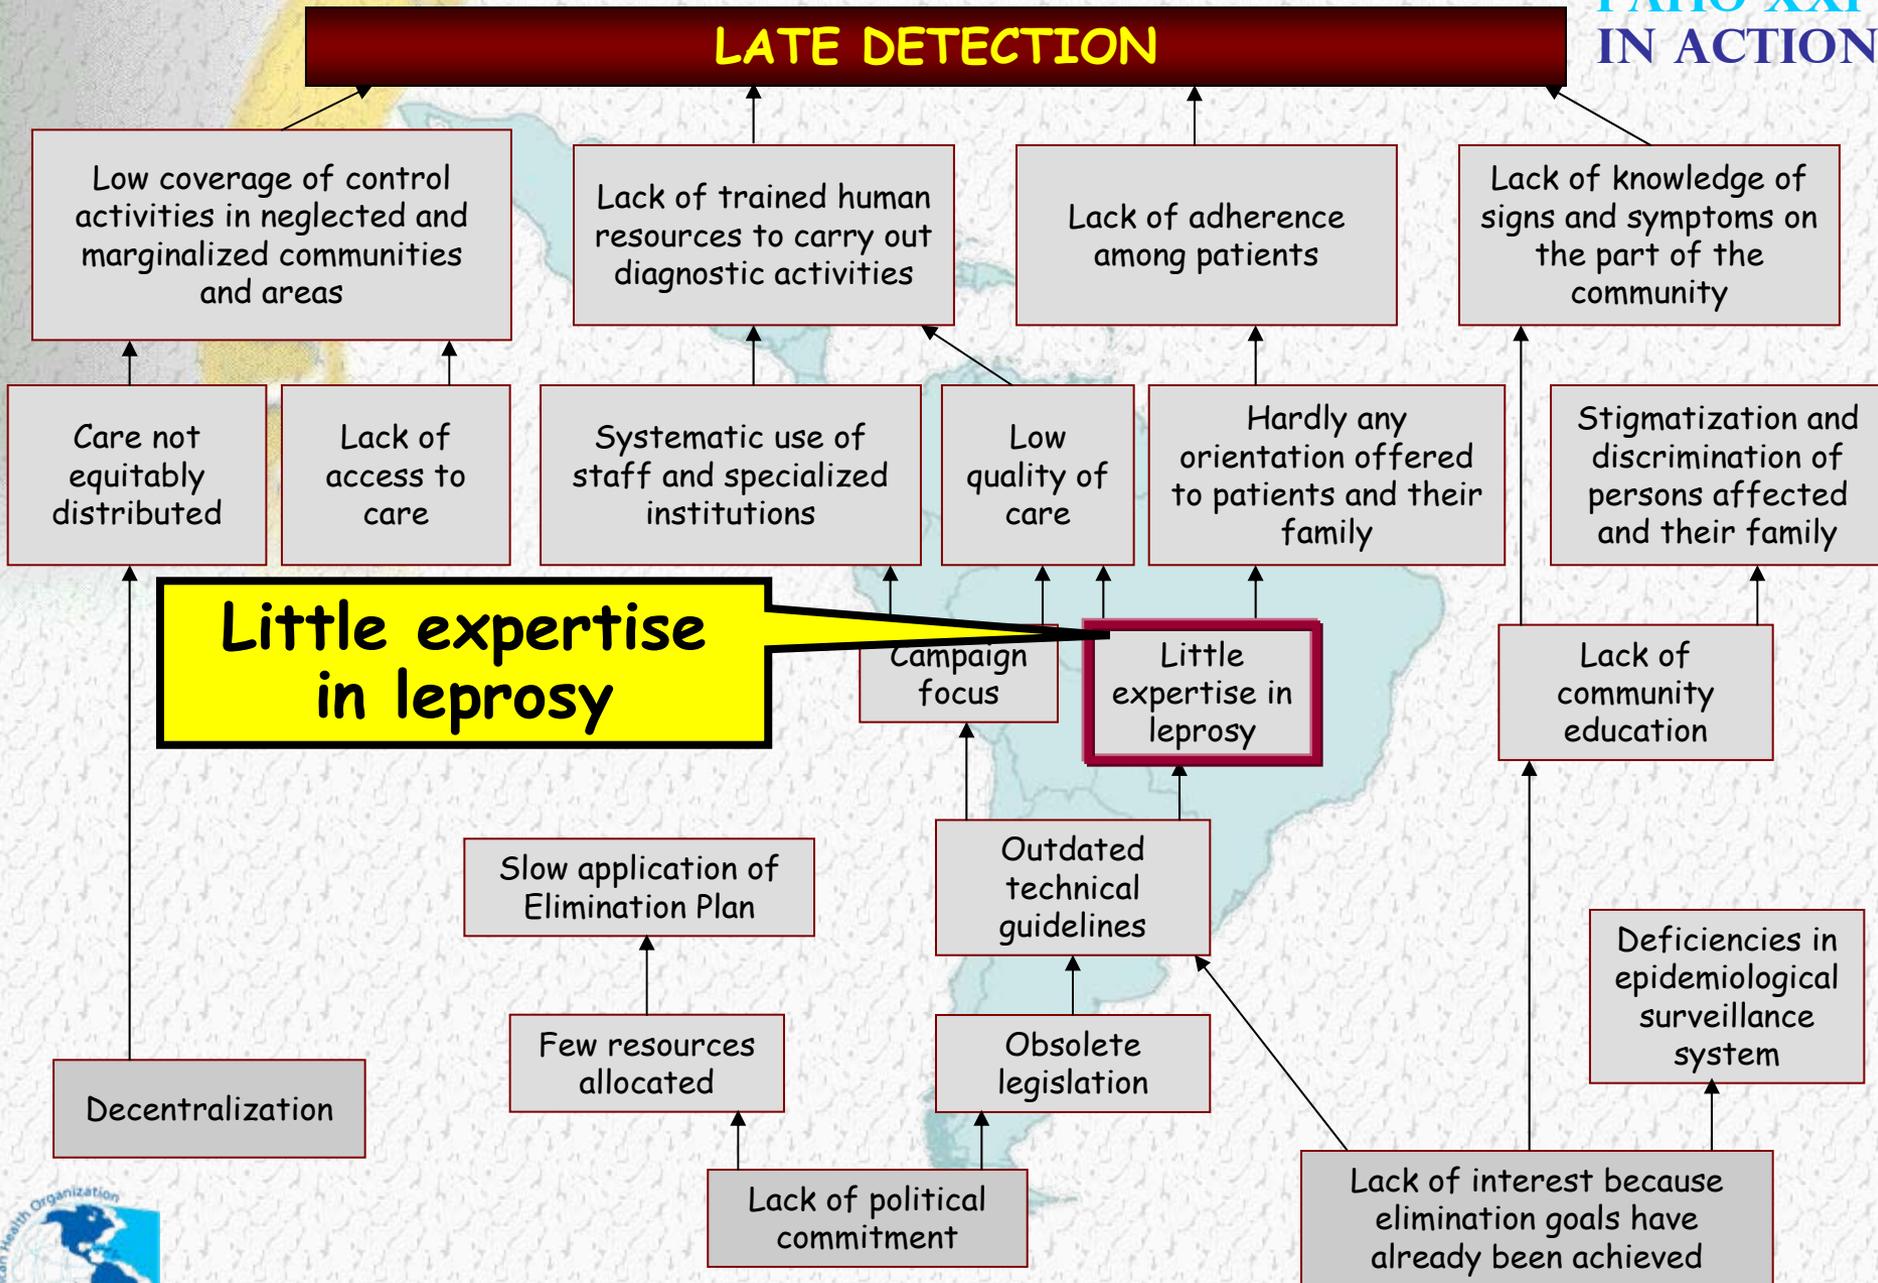

Obsolete legislation

Obsolete legislation

Little expertise in leprosy

Little expertise in leprosy

Campaign focus

Outdated technical guidelines

Obsolete legislation

Slow application of Elimination Plan

Few resources allocated

Lack of political commitment

Lack of interest because elimination goals have already been achieved

Deficiencies in epidemiological surveillance system

Lack of community education

Stigmatization and discrimination of persons affected and their family

Hardly any orientation offered to patients and their family

Low quality of care

Systematic use of staff and specialized institutions

Lack of access to care

Care not equitably distributed

Lack of knowledge of signs and symptoms on the part of the community

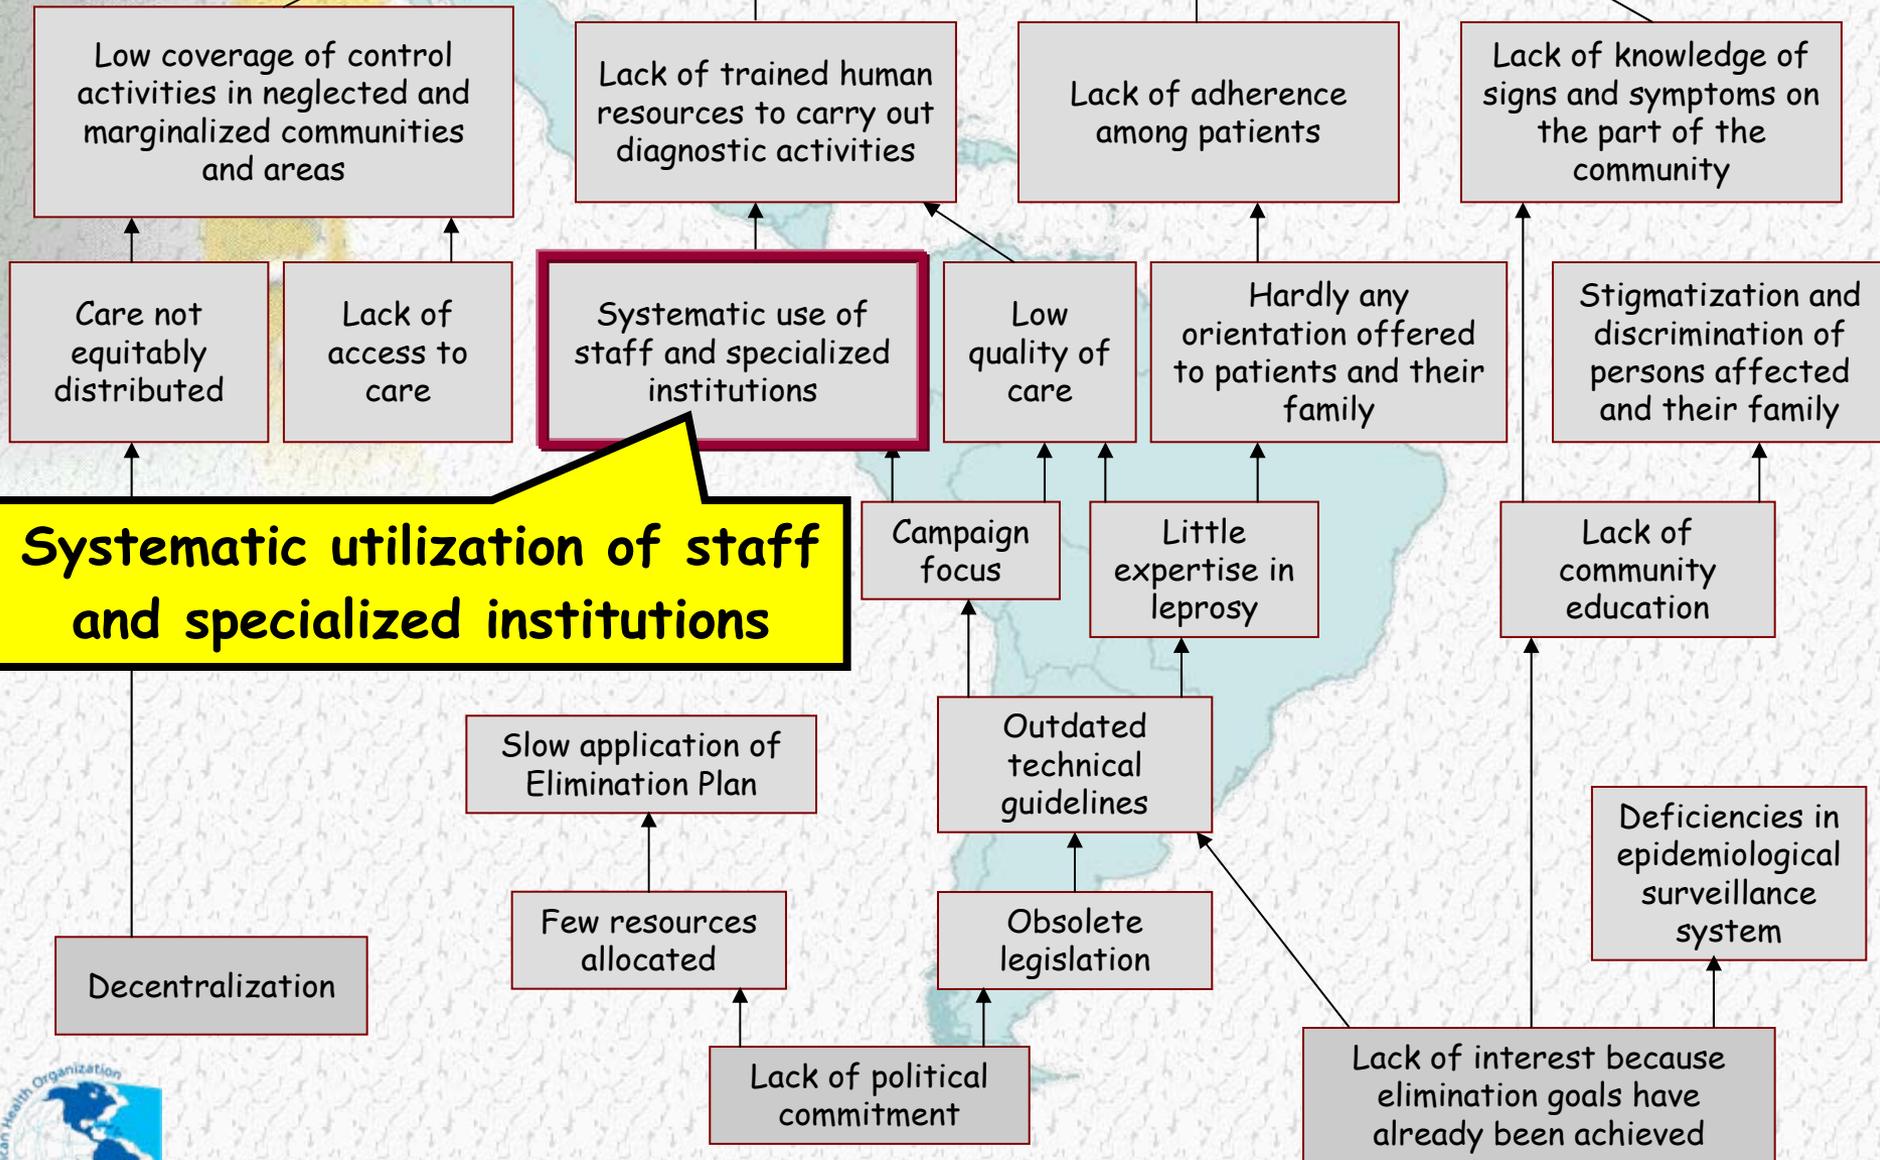

Lack of adherence among patients

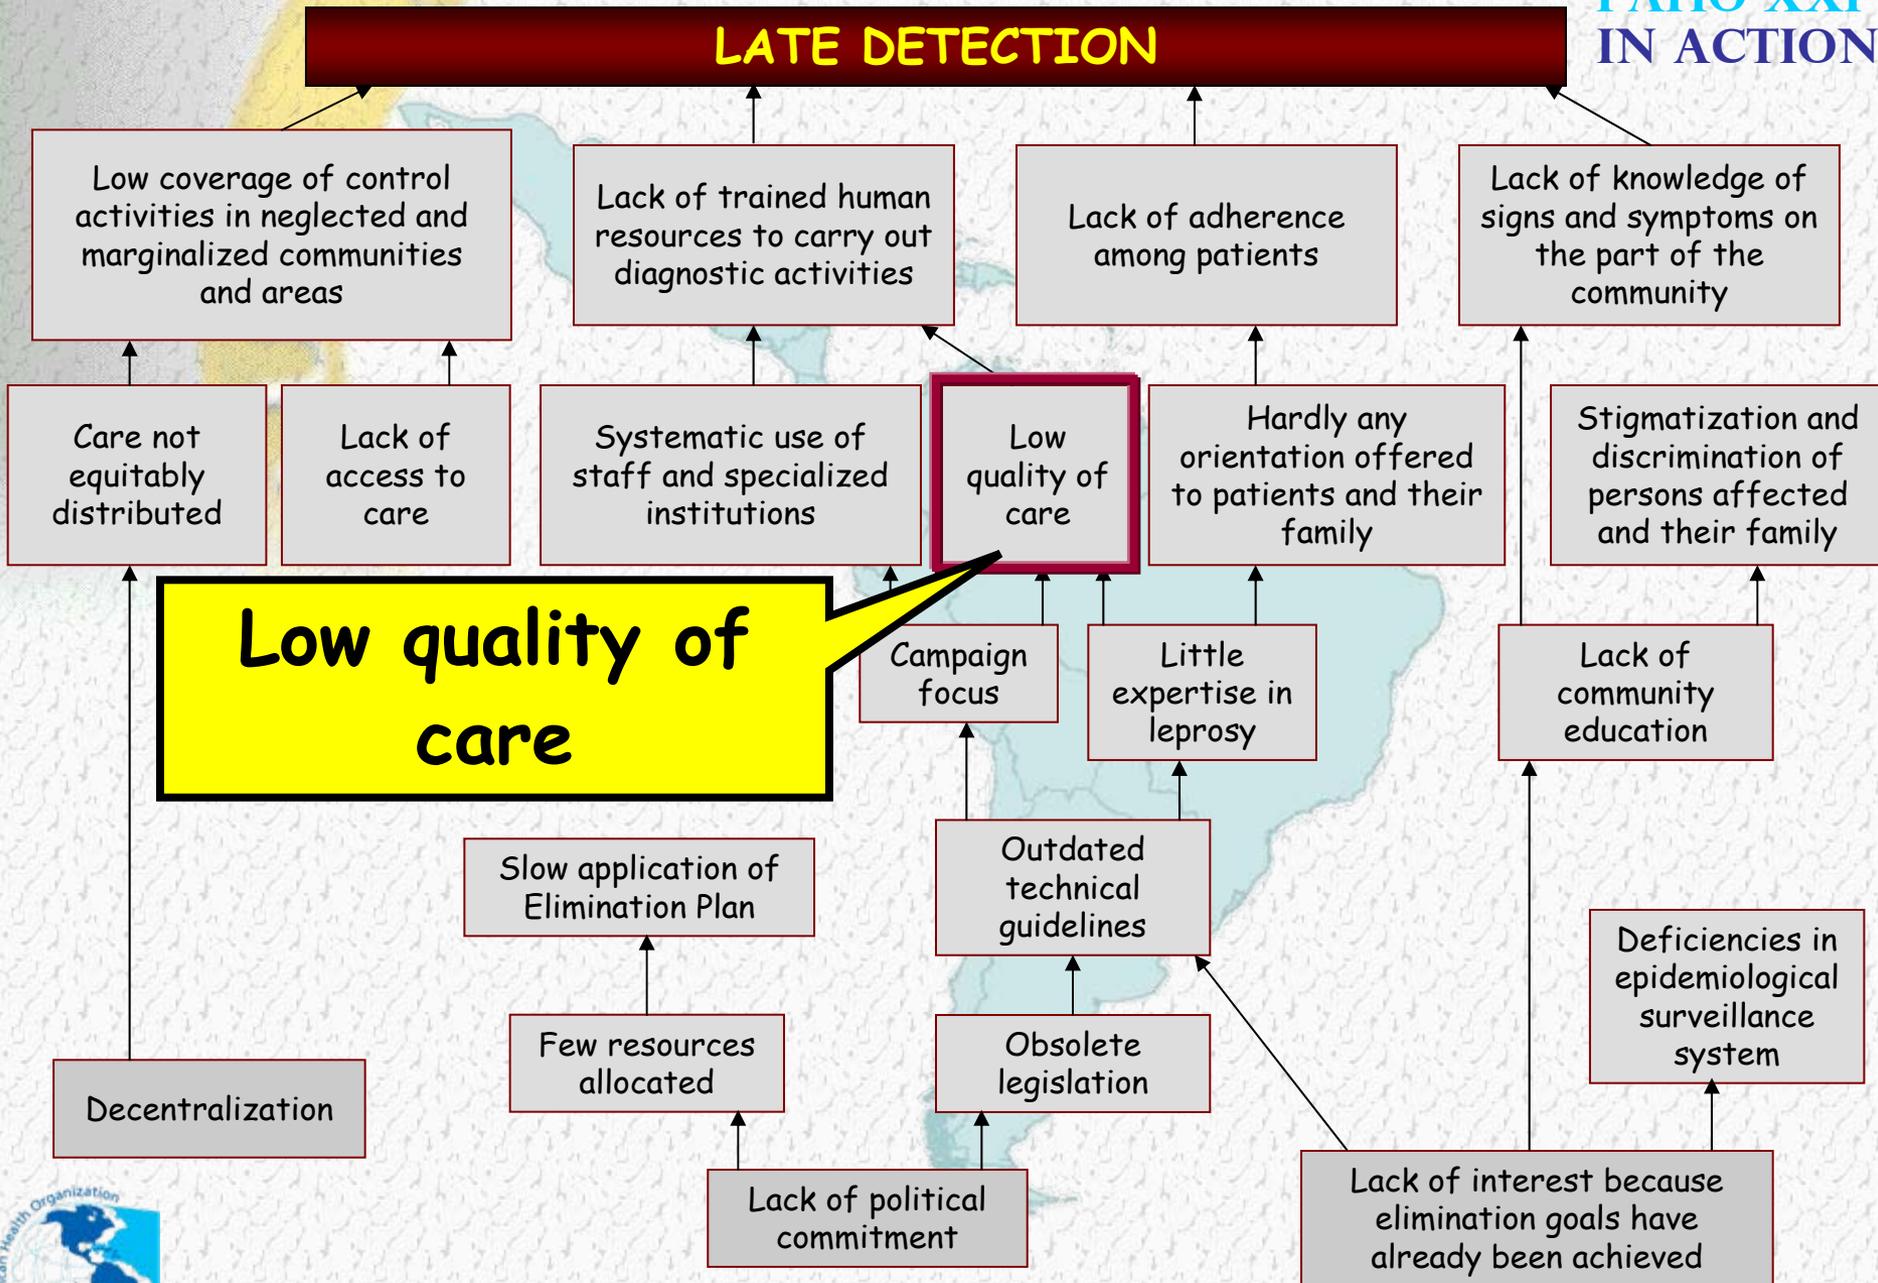

Lack of trained human resources to carry out diagnostic activities

Low coverage of control activities in neglected and marginalized communities and areas

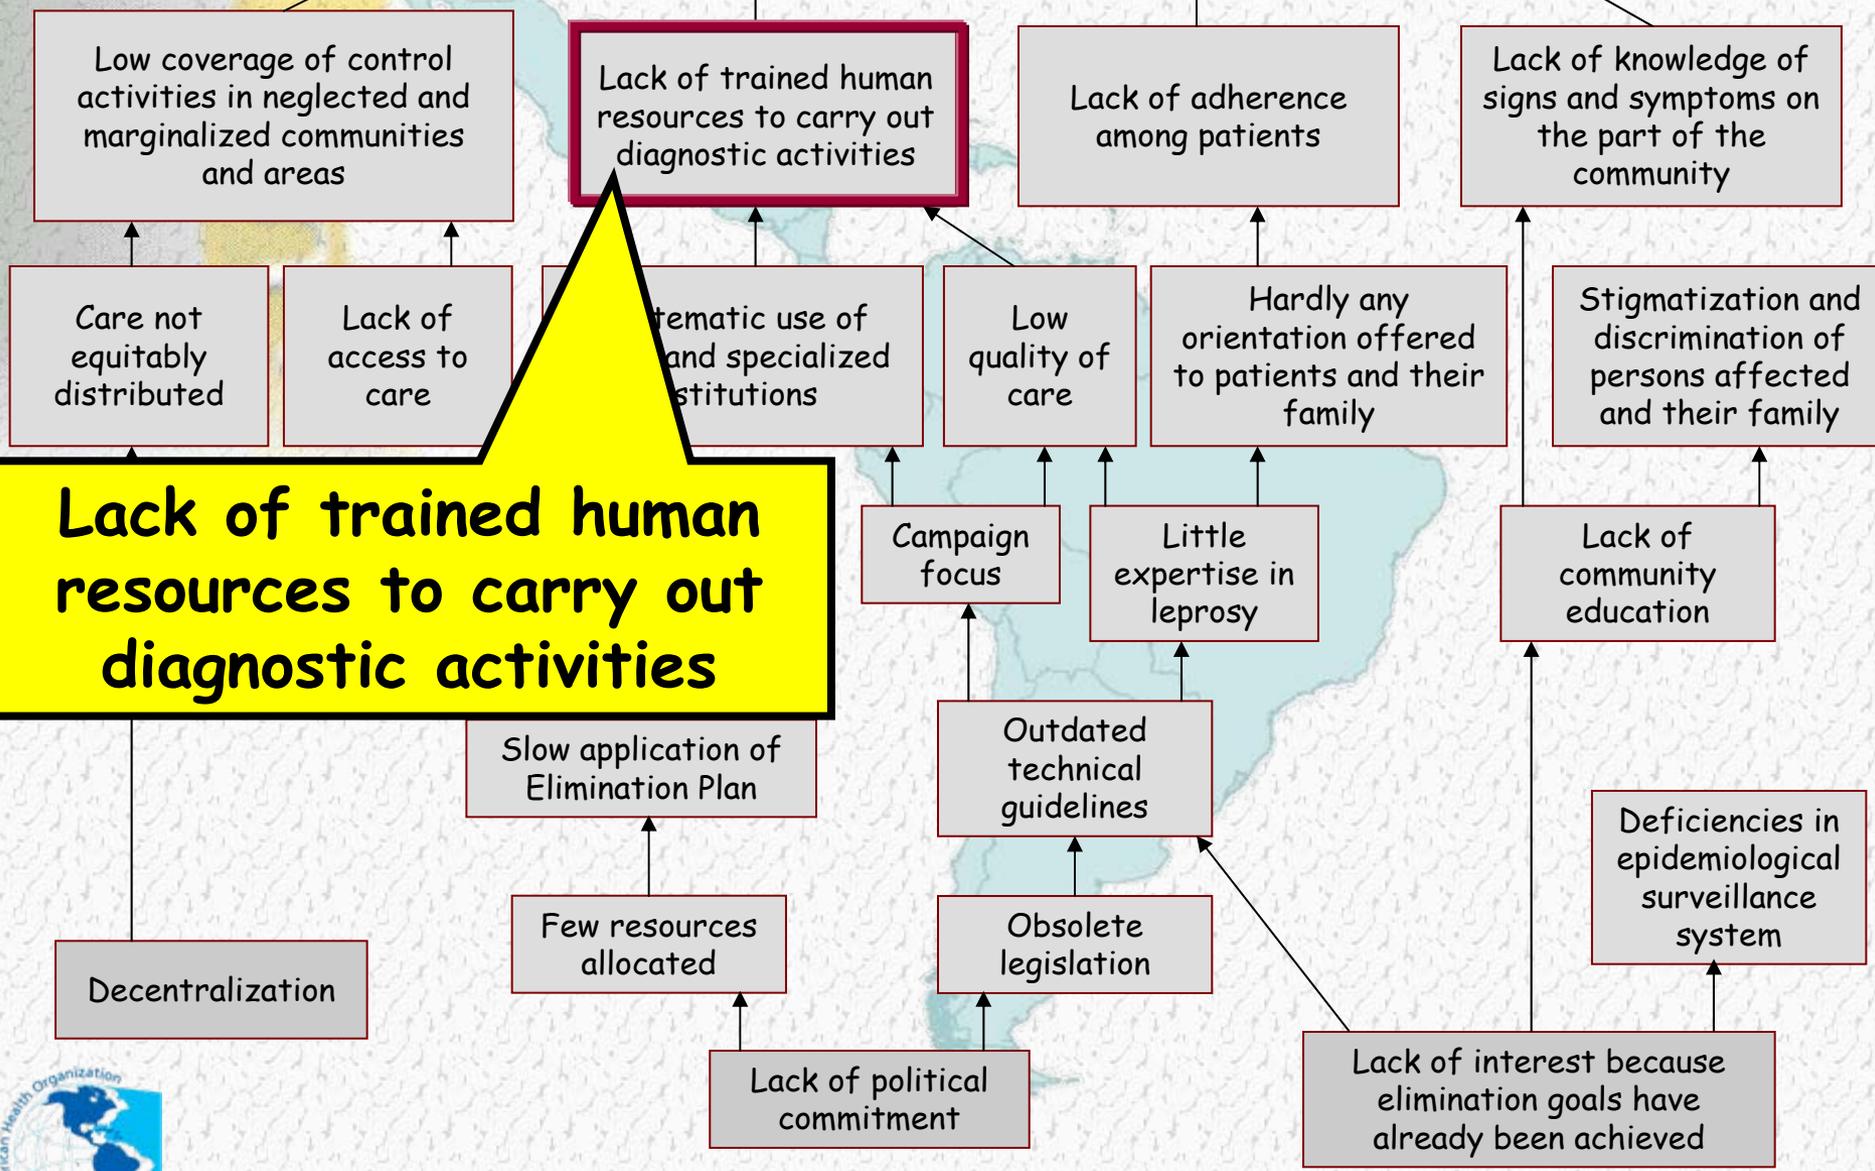

LATE DETECTION

LATE DETECTION

Lack of trained human resources to carry out diagnostic activities

