Item 5.2 Update on WHO Reform

10th Session of the Subcommittee on Program, Budget, and Administration

Washington, D.C., 30 March – 1 April 2016

WHO Reform Overview

- Since its introduction in 2011, WHO has reported significant progress towards becoming more effective, efficient, transparent, and accountable.
- Overall, 84% of reform outputs are now at implementation phase and the rate of completion is 60%.
- Implementation uneven across the 3 streams: programmatic reforms progressed the furthest, governance reforms the least.
- The Ebola outbreak highlighted the need to reform WHO response to outbreaks and health emergencies.
