Advisor, Regional Revolving Funds	PRFN	P16716	P04	Bogota, Colombia

OBJECTIVE OF THE OFFICE/DEPARTMENT

The RRF special program comprises two funds - the Revolving Fund for Access to Vaccines (RF) and the Strategic Fund for Public Health Supplies (SF). The special program is commissioned to facilitate cross-functional integration, collaboration, and optimization of processes and value-added services between the SF and RF to address new and evolving strategic and technical needs of Member States for vaccines and strategic public health supplies. The RF is a technical cooperation mechanism that ensures equitable access to safe, effective, and affordable vaccines by pooling vaccine demand from Member States. The SF is a technical cooperation mechanism to improve access to quality-assured, safe, effective, and affordable essential medicines and strategic public health supplies. The RF and SF provide technical cooperation to Member States throughout the supply chain and are central components of PAHO's strategy to move towards Universal Health.

ORGANIZATIONAL CONTEXT

The incumbent is a member of the Regional Revolving Funds (RRF), supporting the technical cooperation activities included in the Biennial Work Plan (BWP), with emphasis on increasing access to and strengthening the delivery and management of medicines, vaccines, and other strategic health supplies. The incumbent will provide technical cooperation to Member States coherent with strategic orientations provided through Resolutions of the PAHO Governing Bodies and the overarching strategic plan of RRF in accordance with the priorities defined by countries and objectives presented in new and ongoing projects. The incumbent will develop strategies and activities in the Andean sub-region to increase equitable access to vaccines, essential medicines, and strategic public health supplies by leveraging the RRFs to promote efficiencies and strengthen end-to-end supply chain management capabilities and capacities, including but not limited to demand forecasting.

SUMMARY OF RESPONSIBILITIES

Under the general guidance of the Executive Manager, Special Program, Regional Revolving Funds (RRF), and the direct supervision of the Chief of the Revolving Fund for Access to Vaccines (RFV), the incumbent is responsible for, but not necessarily limited to, the following assigned duties:

- a) Develop and drive the implementation of individual annual work plans for each country in close coordination with the PWRs, and Technical Units (HSS, CIM, CDE, NMH, IMT, PRO, etc.) at the country offices, and HQ to address access to vaccines, medicine, and health technology barriers and opportunities through the RRF;
- b) Collaborate with and advise national authorities on the RRF processes and procedures in defining the corresponding technical cooperation program and monitoring progress;
- c) Provide technical support and coordinate administrative and technical areas at national entities to promote the RRF in articulation with PAHO HQ;
- d) Provide technical, timely and accurate support on demand planning, forecasting and consolidation, and advise on the selection of health supplies, including vaccines, immunization supplies, medicines, diagnostics, medical counter measures (MCM) and strategic health technologies through closely collaborating with the Ministry of Health (MOH) and PAHO country stakeholders.

- e) Conduct an in-depth needs assessment to pinpoint opportunities for enhancing access to essential health supplies, including overcoming health technology hurdles. Leverage the RRF as a critical tool to identify, prioritize and address gaps in health supply access, ensuring affordable and quality-assured solutions;
- f) Oversee and facilitate the RRF procurement processes for vaccines, medicines and health technologies ensuring seamless collaboration on technical specifications, quantity verification, shipping document checks and other technical requirements. Manage and monitor the entire procurement cycle, from end-to-end planning to delivery, payment and claims, proactively identifying and resolving issues as necessary to ensure smooth and efficient RRF operations;
- g) Provide technical expertise on the characterization, analysis, and co-creation of health supply and supply chain management, including cold chain strengthening plans in collaboration with the MOH and country office focal points guided by the RRF Supply Chain Advisors. Support targeted market information sharing and communication efforts towards relevant national health programs and national officers for vaccines, essential medicines, strategic health supplies, cold chain equipment, safe injection devices, and all products offered by the RRF;
- h) Support the MOH in analyzing health supplies stock monitoring and generating projections on stock consumption under the guidance of RRF Supply Chain Advisors and collaborate with relevant stakeholders to mitigate any supply risks;
- i) Provide support to member states throughout the RRF utilization process, from needs assessment and access requests to monitoring and balancing the line of credit. Additionally, guide the development and submission of required plans and documents, including procurement and payment schedules;
- j) Provide comprehensive support to strengthen, monitor and evaluate the country's participation in the RRF. Analyze the overall RRF function (political, technical) to optimize the RRF technical cooperation at the national level;
- k) Facilitate the implementation of digital platforms/tools developed by PAHO, including but not limited to the RRF Member State Portal, Quantmet, and QuanTB. Promote their benefits and use by national programs and authorities;
- l) Verify the information provided on the selected country and regional KPIs and proactively look for opportunities to improve the effectiveness and efficiency of the RRF's processes and outcomes;
- m) Perform other related responsibilities as requested by the direct supervisor(s).
