RESOLUTION

CD50.R9

STRENGTHENING NATIONAL REGULATORY AUTHORITIES FOR MEDICINES AND BIOLOGICALS

1. To urge the Member States to:
  - (f) actively participate in the Pan American Network for Drug Regulatory Harmonization (PANDRH).

NRA networks in the Americas enabling mutual knowledge and reliance

Robust, long-lasting and comprehensive networks of regulatory authorities in the region dedicated to:

- ✓ Technical and scientific cooperation
- ✓ Information exchange
- ✓ Work sharing
- ✓ PAHO's Regulatory Authorities of Regional Reference

Much has been built in terms of mutual knowledge and reliance among NRAs in the Americas

How to move farther and faster with regulatory convergence initiatives?

states. The VII Conference of the Pan American Network for Drug Regulatory Harmonization (CPANDRH) (Ottawa, Canada, 5–7 September 2013)<sup>5</sup> recognized this challenge when it adopted its Strategic Development Plan 2014–2020, which calls for 1) active participation of NRAs toward regulatory convergence and harmonization; 2) the integration of PANDRH work with other international initiatives; and 3) the identification of priorities, strategies, and mechanisms for regulatory convergence and harmonization in the Americas.

Regulatory convergence in Americas: “take-aways” from the industry perspective

- ✓ Conditions for convergence are consolidated in the continent: sovereign decisions supporting convergence and a solid network among NRA have been established across years in the Region, enabling mutual knowledge and reliance
- ✓ Move towards effective regulatory convergence is beneficial for patients, regulators, regional integration initiatives and the industry
- ✓ Under PAHO/PANDRH leadership and with industry/NRA collaboration, the election of priority and feasible topics for a work agenda on regulatory convergence and the integration of PANDRH work with other international initiatives would foster convergence in the region and prevent fragmentation of efforts
- ✓ Ongoing initiatives could be enhanced towards more convergence and collaboration: Ex.: Caribbean Regulatory System project covering also innovative drugs
