Can I take the COVID-19 vaccine?

- Pregnant or breastfeeding
- Asthma or eczema
- Enzyme deficiency causing anaemia (G6PD)
- Taking traditional Chinese medication
- Undergoing kidney dialysis
- Chronic conditions (e.g., diabetes, high cholesterol, hypertension)
- Undergoing active cancer treatment (e.g., chemotherapy, immunotherapy or radiation therapy)
- On regular blood thinning medication, or have stable bleeding or anticoagulation disorders
- Severeely weakened immune system (e.g., recent organ transplant or HIV with CD4 count < 200)
- History of skin disorders, severe cutaneous adverse reactions (SCARS)
- History of anaphylaxis or allergies to medications, food or insect bites
- Have a very low platelet count of <50K

If you are unsure about your medical condition, please check with your doctor before registering for vaccination.