In the Americas region, there have been no cases of polio since 1991!
This is the result of vaccination and the effort of:

- Countries
- Health workers
- Partners
If people are not vaccinated, there is a chance that the virus will reappear because it still exists in some countries of the world.
Even during the COVID-19 pandemic:

- Let's continue with epidemiological surveillance
- and vaccination of children against this disease