BREAST CANCER SCREENING AND EARLY DETECTION

SEMINAR/WEBINAR TO COMMEMORATE WORLD CANCER DAY

Tuesday, February 3, 2015
Pan American Health Organization. Room B
525 23rd St NW, Washington, DC
9:30am – 1:00pm (time in Washington, DC)

9:30 am  Registration

10:00 am  OPENING REMARKS
Dr. Anselm Hennis, Director of the Department on Noncommunicable Diseases and Mental Health

10:10 am  EVIDENCE REVIEW: Scientific evidence on breast cancer early detection
Dr. Ben Anderson, Global Breast Cancer Alliance and Fred Hutchinson Cancer Research Center

10:30 am  CLOSING THE BREAST CANCER DIVIDE: The case for investing in breast cancer screening
Dr. Felicia Knaul, Harvard Global Equity Initiative

10:50 am  PROGRAM EXPERIENCE: How The Bahamas has addressed breast cancer screening
Dr. Larry Carroll, Bahamas Breast Cancer Initiative

11:10 am  COMMUNITY MOBILIZATION: A civil society perspective on raising awareness of breast cancer
Dr. Maira Caleffi, FEMAMA

11:30 pm  DISCUSSION

12:45 pm  CLOSING REMARKS

1:00pm  ADJOURN

Please RSVP (for attendance in person or virtual) by registering at: http://bit.ly/1DPS3Ae

To participate virtually via Blackboard Collaboration, please use this link: