

GENDER EQUALITY IN UNIVERSAL ACCESS TO HEALTH AND UNIVERSAL HEALTH COVERAGE

Webinar

Monday, March 23, 2015

2:00-4:30 pm

PAHO Main Building, Room B

Livestream links: Spanish: <http://www.livestream.com/opsenvivo>
English: <http://www.livestream.com/paho>

Objective	Within the framework of International Women´s Day 2015, to promote discussion, debate and engagement on the relationship between gender equality and universal access to health and universal health coverage
Moderator	Francisco Becerra Assistant Director, PAHO
Opening remarks	Isabella Danel Deputy Director, PAHO
Presentations	Gender Equality and Universal Access to Health and Universal Health Coverage: Expanding the conceptual framework Anna Coates Unit Chief, Gender and Cultural Diversity, PAHO Gender, Globalization and Health in Latin America: Chile´s experience of health sector reform Jasmine Gideon Senior Lecturer, Development Studies, University of London Gender and Universal Access to Health and Universal Health Coverage: Costa Rica´s experience Fernando Llorca Castro (TBC) Minister of Health of Costa Rica, a.i.
Comments	James Fitzgerald Department Director, Health Systems and Services, PAHO Amparo Elena Gordillo-Tobar Senior Economist, The World Bank Group
Moderated discussion	All participants
Closing remarks	Juan Manuel Sotelo President, Global Health International Advisors (GHIA)