

(Place), (date)

Dear Editor of the Pan American Journal of Public Health,

We are pleased to submit this article as (type of article) paper on (title) to be considered for a (regular issue/special issue on [title of special issue]), and hope you will consider it for publication in your Journal. This paper describes (brief description of the study main findings).

We feel that the findings of this study will be of interest to a wide global readership and hence our decision to submit to your journal.

(Author A name) contributed to (specific contribution, e.g., the design, data analysis, interpretation and writing of first and subsequent drafts of the paper).

(Author B name), contributed to..., etc.

All authors have read and approved the final manuscript for submission.

Yours sincerely,

(First author name) on behalf of the co-authors

Names and signatures of all authors: