Climate change and health

The biggest global health threat of the 21st century

Road map to promote health in a changing climate

- Reducing emissions of health care facilities
- Reducing emissions of health supply chain
- Training health personnel and informing the people
- Adapting to climate change: delivering better health services in a changing world
- Financing health on climate action and increasing governance
- Energy, health, and climate change
- Agriculture, climate change, and health
- Transportation, climate change, and health

PAHO’s initiative

- Smart Hospitals
- Co-benefits of tackling air pollution

Health sector

Climate change

Social and behavioral context

Impacts through natural systems

Impact through socioeconomic system

Health system conditions

Health impact

The 2015

2015

Sustainable Development Goals

Pan American Health Organization

World Health Organization

Health in the Americas