Emergent Diseases and critical health problems

- Increased movement among the population
- Increased pressure on the environment, and environmental changes
- Polio
- Diseases eliminated in the region
- 1971 Smallpox
- 1994 Polio
- 2015 Rubella
- 2016 Measles

Social, environmental, and economic dimensions of development

The goals of the 2030 Sustainable Development Agenda

- Requires more integrated and collaborative approaches to address inequities.
- Social, environmental, and economic dimensions of development
- Intergenerational vision

Important regional challenges

1. Foodborne diseases (infections and intoxications)
2. Health care–associated infections
3. Arboviruses
4. Influenza
5. Plague
6. Leptospirosis
7. Cholera

Control of communicable diseases

Diseases eliminated in the region

- 1971 Smallpox
- 1994 Polio
- 2015 Rubella
- 2016 Measles

Agenda Challenges 2030

- HIV
- Sexually transmitted infections
- Tuberculosis
- Malaria
- Vaccine-preventable diseases
- Neglected infectious diseases
- Viral hepatitis