

WEBINAR

COURSE LAUNCH: RISK ASSESSMENT FOR CHILDREN'S HEALTH AND E-WASTE EXPOSURE-2022

The treatment and disposal of electronic waste is a growing problem in the region of the Americas due to contamination by toxic elements present in electrical and electronic devices, generating occupational and environmental exposures from which adverse health conditions are derived. This course is launched as a tool for the generation of capacities oriented to the management and multidisciplinary approach of the problem with a public health approach.

Save the date

Date: October 5

Time: 10:00 AM (WDC/BOL)

9:00 AM (COL/PAN/PER/MEX)

Platform: ZOOM

There will be simultaneous translation spanish-english

UASLP
Universidad Autónoma
de San Luis Potosí

World Health Organization

REGISTRATION HERE