We are one step away from eradicating polio in the world.
Children, from 2 months to 6 years of age, should complete all doses of polio vaccine as recommended by their healthcare provider.
Will protect them from serious illness and death and avoid lifelong paralysis due to the poliovirus

Talk to your healthcare provider for more information