

ADVANCES

Of the 35 countries in the Americas, 30 countries have climate change interministerial committees that include health countries recognize the importance of health in national climate change commitments ...but most still lack health national adaptation plans (HNAPs).

35

26

countries have implemented health and climate surveillance activities

13 countries received international funds for climate change and health

15

countries have a national target for health sector greenhouse gas emission reductions

Learn more about the impact of climate change on health.

PAHO

Pan American Health Organization

World Health Organization
Americas Region